

Established 1994 in New York City

The Malted Barley Appreciation Society is a New York City-based craft beer lovers and homebrewing club. We meet every month at Mugs Ale House, Brooklyn; the meetings usually feature a guest speaker from the craft beer industry.

Our members and officers include prize winners from homebrew competitions both local and national, and beginners trying their first batch. Many of our members don't brew any beer at all, but enjoy learning about, tasting and appreciating beer and how it's brewed.

We have a monthly newsletter (sent in PDF format by email) to all members. It includes meeting highlights, articles, information on club activities, accounts of beer-seeking trips around the world, and much more. We also try not to take ourselves too seriously.

The Malted Barley Appreciation Society also runs occasional events, day trips, and pub crawls.

Membership is $20 per year (January-December). To join us, please print and fill out this page and send it in with a check - or simply apply directly a meeting.

MBAS monthly meetings are at 7:30pm on the 2nd Wednesday of each month at Mugs Ale House, 125 Bedford Avenue, Williamsburg, Brooklyn.
